

YOU ARE INVITED!

A Loving Witness in Troubled Times Interfaith Thanksgiving Dinner & Fellowship

Join us for an evening of unity in this sacred space where people of all religions and beliefs can come together to give thanks, to connect with others who desire change, and to be inspired to sow love, peace, and hope with gratitude in the world.

DATE

Tuesday, November 18th

TIME

6:30 PM

LOCATION

Saint Mark's UMC
2391 St Marks Way,
Sacramento, CA 95864

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

- Interfaith Reflections on Gratitude and Resilience – Hear wisdom from diverse spiritual traditions
- Shared Thanksgiving Dinner – Break bread together in fellowship and celebration
- Music & Prayer – Join in song and contemplative moments that unite our hearts
- Opportunities for Fellowship and Dialogue – Connect with neighbors who share your hope for a more compassionate world

This gathering is open to individuals and families of all faiths and backgrounds. Let's come together to give thanks and spread love, compassion, and understanding.

RSVP tvilhjalms@stmarksumc.com

916.483.7848

John & Miriam McCormack

QUESTION? firetester14@gmail.com

Sponsored by Saint Mark's,

Congregation Beth Shalom & Pacifica Institute

ALL ARE WELCOME!